CTC summer semester registration begins

Registration for Central Texas College (CTC) central campus summer semester classes begins Monday, May 12 and continues through June 6. The first day of classes is June 9.

Students may register online for summer I five and 10-week classes as well as summer II classes by logging onto www.ctcd.edu, clicking on the “Students” link and then clicking on the “WebAdvisor” link. Class schedules are also available at the same web address. Academic advisement for new students or students changing degree plans will be conducted May 27-30 in the Guidance and Counseling Office (Building 119) from 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. on Thursday and 8 – 11 a.m. on Friday. Walk-in registration will also be conducted during these hours June 2-6.

New student orientation will be held Friday, June 6 at 9 a.m. in the Criminal Justice Building (Bldg. 113, room 106. All new and returning students interested in learning about the campus and the services available to students are welcome. To sign up, please call 254-526-1258.

Summer classes at the CTC Fort Hood campus begin June 9. Registration for those classes is currently underway for civilians, dependents, retired military and military members other than Army personnel online at www.ctcd.edu. Active duty Army personnel can register now but must use the GoArmyEd.com portal online.

Active service members and their dependents must submit a military verification form to be eligible for in-state tuition rates. For more information, please call 526-1906 or contact student services/evaluations at 526-1917.

Walk-in registration is being conducted in Building 3201 at Battalion Avenue and 72nd Street, during the hours of 7:30 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. (0730 to 1615).
